

Jesus in the Psalms

All of the needs, desires, and longings, that the psalms give voice to, find their ultimate fulfillment in Jesus

He is our Savior

He is our Rescuer

He is our Deliverer

He is our King

He is our Mighty Fortress

He is the object of all of our praise

He is the great High Priest who has felt our deepest laments

He is the source of all that we are thankful for

He is the defeater of death, sin, and guilt

He is the One who rescues us from our enemies

He is our righteousness

He is our rock

He is our refuge

He is our strength

He is our ever-present help in trouble

He is the Good Shepherd who looks after us, guides us, feeds us, never leaves us, takes care of us, gives us peace, protects us, and pursues us all the days of our lives

He is the Brother of the outcast

He knows what it feels like to be abandoned and to be forsaken

He knows what it feels like to praise, to lament, and to thank God

He is the Friend of sinners

He is the God of 70 x 7 forgiveness

He is the Lord of redemption

He is all over the psalms

We can look back now and go to these songs. They were sung and prayed by King David and they point forward to the One who would ultimately be the King, set on a throne forever -- not just for a time, but forever

Jesus is all over the psalms my hope and my prayer is that we see Jesus, and that our eyes be fixed on Him, the Author and Finisher of our faith.
